WILL RAISE $500,000 FOR DOOMED CHINESE

HEP SING TONG YET HOPES TO SAVE CONVICTED NINE FROM ELECTRIC CHAIR.

In an effort to save the nine Chinese who have been found guilty of murder of four fellow countrymen, and who under the verdict issued by the jury must be executed in the electric chair, HEP SING TONG, a Chinese official, has announced that he has secured a loan of $500,000 from the Chinese government to pay the ransom for the nine.

Already General Charles W. Hays and Harry N. Pratt, counsel for the convicted men, have been making an appeal for a new trial. The Chinese government has agreed to pay the ransom for the nine, but the United States government has refused to accept the ransom. The Chinese government has also agreed to pay the ransom for the nine, but the United States government has refused to accept the ransom.

Legal View. Against these efforts will be directed the arguments of the District Attorney, who, the members of the Da Leung Society with which the four murdered men were connected, have been making an appeal for a new trial. The Chinese government has agreed to pay the ransom for the nine, but the United States government has refused to accept the ransom.

Cruiser at Canton and Strong Squadron on the Way to Enforce Demands by Mikado

LONDON, March 9.--The gravest apprehension is felt in diplomatic circles over the situation in the Far East.

That a crisis in the Japan-China difficulty is at hand is no longer doubted, and a naval demonstration by the Mikado's fleet is hourly expected.

One Japanese cruiser is already at Canton, where the Tatsui is held. The Japanese southern squadron is on its way to the same port and the naval base at Sasebo, whence the armored cruiser Chiyoda sailed Saturday night for an unknown destination, is unprecedently active.

The departure of a part of the first squadron--for what port is unannounced--has been ordered March 14. Torpedo boat destroyers are coaling as rapidly as possible and other supplies are being hurried aboard ship.

Disputes from Peking and Canton declare that excitement in these cities has reached fever heat, and the prevailing opinion is that national hostilities demand resistance on China's part.

Powers May Interfere. "We say as well being the matter to the Chinese Embassy today, for Japan is merely looking for a pretext, and no sooner will the Tatsui affair be settled than something else will be up that will start and intensify, with as much force for trading our country."

GRANTS INJECTION AGAINST C. F. KING

JUDGE RICHARDSON REFUSES TO APPOINT A RECEIVER AS ASKED BY MCCARTHY.

In the hearing in the Superior Court today on the petition of Charles J. McCarthy for an accounting with C. F. King and others, Attorney C. A. McDermott, called for McCarthy, retaining C. F. King, the King interests, but the Court denied that request. McCarthy's contention was that King had been guilty of fraud and that he was entitled to an accounting. The Court refused to appoint a receiver as asked by McCarthy.

TICIAN'S
Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:
 I have been informed by the local Branches Union, No. 368, to forward to you the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Newbury's Union and Boston Central Labor Union have, in their efforts to organize the workers of the BOSTON AMERICAN, and have, in our belief, been guilty of a gross violation of the rights of political office holders in order that they might wreck the influence on a public body of the workers of the BOSTON AMERICAN in the trade unions, as the BOSTON AMERICAN has been the champion of labor in its many battles against the trusts.

Respectfully,
 J. H. ALLEN,
 Chairman, Committee on Resolutions
